

Christian education should be viewed as a financial and spiritual investment. In an effort to do our part, Calvary Christian School strives to keep tuition affordable for average families, though certainly, Christian education will always require financial sacrifice. CCS has an inclusive Book/Commitment Fee that combines many separate costs that are assessed to all students. This fee includes: rental and consumable textbooks, classroom music instruction (Grades 3-6), choral music (Grades 7-8), testing fees, EDLINE fees, technology fees, lab fees, locker fees, a yearbook, SCACS and AACS membership fees, and supplemental student accident insurance. Other miscellaneous fees will be charged to only the participants for school services or activities. The financial policy (found on the reverse side of this form) contains additional information and guidelines about your financial relationship with CCS.
