TEACHER & STUDENTS OF THE MONTH
NOVEMBER 2011

Mr. Glendinning - Mr. Roland says, "We are so grateful that God brought Mr. Glendinning to us. His 'know-how' coupled with a desire to be used by God in any capacity has made him indispensable in the operation at CCS. Though he is not an 'academic teacher' per se, he has taught all of us valuable lessons of hard work and humble servanthood."

Amrithaa Balachandran - Kindergarten (K5)- Mrs. Wallis says, "Amrithaa has a wonderful attitude. She always tries to do her best. She is kind and helpful. She works hard and follows the Golden Rule. I am so glad she is in my class. She is a joy to teach and a very special blessing. I love you, Amrithaa!"

Paige Nims - Elementary (3rd Grade) - Mrs. Glendinning says, "Paige is an all-around terrific student. She works hard, consistently pays attention and eagerly participates in class discussions. Her classmates appreciate her kindness and friendliness. She's a ready helper with classroom chores. I am always encouraged by her sweet smile."

Neel Sawicky - High School (10th Grade) - Miss Wallis says, "Neel has been working very hard this year and it is obvious in both his assignments and his behavior. Neel is helpful and positive and has shown great leadership in and out of the classroom."

Congratulations and thanks to these for "letting their light shine before men" that our Father in heaven might be glorified!

Miss Owens - Mr. Roland says, "I appreciate so much Miss Owens' willingness to jump into any responsibility given to her. Her willingness to serve and her commitment to Jesus Christ are exemplary. We are so grateful God has brought her to CCS."

Alex Barth - Kindergarten (K3)- Mrs. Richmond says, "I chose Alex because she has improved so much in her attitude and behavior! She is a sweet girl and gets along well with her friends. She is a great joy to have in class. Alex, keep up the good work! I love you!"

Jalen Rogers - Elementary (4th Grade) - Miss Lang says, "Jalen loves coming to school at Calvary. He likes learning the Bible and being with his friends. Jalen tries so hard to do well in school. He completes all of his assignments on time and participates in class. He is always willing to help and I can count on him to do a good job. I love having Jalen in my class!"

Jordan Simon - High School (8th Grade) - Mr. Whiteside says, "Jordan is a great student, awesome role model, and possesses a genuine and true servant's heart for the Lord. In the classroom Jordan is always focused, prepared, and ready to tackle new challenges. He is a true asset to the CCS student body."

Congratulations and thanks to these for "letting their light shine before men" that our Father in heaven might be glorified!

CCS Fine Arts

Because Calvary Christian School is a member of the South Carolina Association of Christian Schools and the American Association of Christian Schools (AACCS), we are able to participate annually in state and national fine arts competition.

Additionally, two students from each level and in each category will be chosen to represent

CCS in Charleston at the SCACS Fine Arts Festival. Our junior and senior high students may also submit artwork for the school-wide contest and consideration for the three-day SCACS Fine Arts Festival held in Columbia.

academic testing, spelling, photography, calligraphy, textiles, and much more! Please call the school office or visit the Fine Arts page on our website for more information.
